CANDLEHOLDER LIGHT TOUCH

Jaime Hayon's candleholder series for Fritz Hansen – now in a refined and long lasting stainless steel version.

LIGHT TOUCH

Reimagining Jaime Hayon's candleholder with a stainless steel finish, the sculptural designs invite play and experimentation. In a nod to the sleek and streamlined surface of Fritz Hansen's Poul Kjærholm designs, stainless steel profiles a pure, refined and honest expression that lends itself to any setting.

Whether filled with candles or displayed as a standalone sculpture, each elongated holder can be combined in arrangements from a circular base or across a surface to bring ambience to rooms.
